

DISCUSSION BASED TABLETOP EXERCISE: DESIGN TEMPLATE & DOCUMENTATION

This form shall be used to design and facilitate a Tabletop Exercise as well as provide appropriate documentation of performance and findings during the exercise.

Key Concept: A Tabletop Exercise (TTX) involves administrative staff, department heads and other key personnel in an informal group discussion focused on a hypothetical situation.

The general purpose of the TTX is to test existing plans, policies and procedures without incurring significant costs and time commitment required to deploy and test actual resources. A TTX allows participants to thoroughly work through a problem in a controlled environment at a slow pace in compressed or simulated time without the pressures of an operations-based exercise.

It is recommended that TTX be developed and completed on a regular basis for potential threats and perils that have been identified in the facility’s Hazard Vulnerability Assessment.

Goals:

Participants in a TTX will:

- Identify strengths and opportunities for improvement
- Enhance understanding of new concepts
- Change attitudes and perspectives

Conduct Characteristics:

- Requires an experienced person to facilitate the TTX
- Promotes in-depth discussions
- Involves slow-paced problem solving in simulated / compressed time
